

I am writing to protest the use of FCC licenses by Sinclair Broadcasting Group to present a political ad for Bush/Cheney disguised as a "documentary" on John Kerry. This is an obvious abuse of Sinclair's broadcasting privileges, and should not be permitted or tolerated. Sinclair has already abused its these privileges by interfering with an ABC "Nightline" news presentation on American war deaths in Iraq. You, the FCC, have an obligation to prevent the use of these broadcasting licenses for political purposes except where political advertising is clearly identified as such. In this case, the "documentary" must be clearly identified as political at frequent intervals, and no paid advertising should be permitted during the broadcast.
